Center for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI)

UNIVERSITY OF STRASBOURG

CEIPI offers several types of training, diplomas or no-degree courses (masters, University Diplomas, short courses) in initial or continuing education, in French or English.

General presentation and specificities

The Center for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI) of the University of Strasbourg is one of the oldest and most renowned teaching and research centers in intellectual property in Europe. Its history is closely linked to the development of intellectual property in France and in the world. Through its diversified and constantly evolving offer, the center, anchored in Strasbourg, has played a significant role in the training of generations of IP professionals in Europe and beyond.

In this context, CEIPI trains specialists in intellectual property law by organizing several training courses. With more than 55 years of experience, high quality teaching tools, a teaching staff composed of specialized academics and recognized practitioners from all national, European and international backgrounds, CEIPI is today recognized in all specialized circles as one of the most important university centers in Europe for teaching and research in intellectual property law. The Center also has a Research Section which carries out fundamental research in the field of intellectual property.
