The course is organised by the Centre for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI) at the University of Strasbourg.

The lecturers are chosen from among the CEIPI’s professors and permanent or visiting fellows, as well as members of the EPO.

The summer school will be held over 6 working days, from Monday July 4 to Saturday July 9, 2011.

The summer school presents a practical and academic overview of the IP-related aspects of legal system in the European Union, as well as giving concrete ideas about IP litigation in Europe. The course is directed mainly at students and practitioners who want to acquire the basics of the European IP system.

Focus will be given on proceedings before the EPO and before the OHIM, as well as giving concrete ideas about IP litigation in Europe. The course aims to provide an academic and practical overview of the IP-related aspects of the legal system in the European Union, as well as giving concrete ideas about IP litigation in Europe.
