

SUMMER SCHOOL ON IP IN EUROPE

CEIPI - Strasbourg
5-10 July 2010

The course is organised by the Centre for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI) at the University of Strasbourg.

The lecturers are chosen from those of the CEIPI and IP specialists including Academics, Patent and Trademark attorneys, Attorneys-at-law, as well as a member of EPO's management.

The summer course will be held over 6 working days, from Monday July 5 to Saturday July 10, 2010.

The course aims to provide an academic and practical overview of the IP-related aspects of the legal system in the European Union, as well as giving concrete ideas about IP litigation in Europe. The course is directed mainly at students and practitioners who want to acquire the basics of the European IP system.

Focus will be given on proceedings before the EPO and before the OHIM, as well on national laws of the three key countries involved in IP in Europe.
